SYG
 Summerdale Youth Group
 Growing in Faith, Hope and Love

Today is a special day for our church family as we honor four incredible young people: Zoe, Chloe, Aubri, and Kile. It's hard to believe that their time in the youth group is coming to an end and they are about to begin a brand-new chapter of life. We are so proud of the men and women they have become.

Each of them has left a mark on our hearts. We have watched them grow—not just in age, but in faith, character, and love for the Lord. Their smiles, their service, and their spirit have been a blessing to our congregation and to everyone who knows them. Watching them mature into young adults has been one of the greatest privileges we have had.

As they step into the next phase of their lives, whether it's college, work, or wherever life leads them, I want them—and all of us—to remember something very important: you are never alone. God has gone before you, and He will walk beside you every step of the way. Proverbs 3:5-6 tells us to, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths." If you keep your eyes fixed on Him, you will never be without purpose, hope, or direction.

Church family, I encourage you today to pray for these young people, to encourage them, and to remind them that they will always have a home here. And to Zoe, Cloe, Aubri, and Kile: we love you so very much. You have blessed our lives more than you know. We can't wait to see the amazing things God will do through you.

Always remember—you are loved. Eric

"WHAT WOULD THE APOSTLES DO?"
NON-DENOMINATIONAL CHRISTIANITY

We must not only believe in non-denominational Christianity, but we also must teach others what we know. We need to make sure that others do not fall into the trap of denominationalism. We may suffer at the hands of men because of our refusal to conform to the ways of the world and the ways of the denominations. Romans 12:1-2 says, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." II Timothy 3:12 says, "Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution." We need to remember that we are to be a peculiar people (I Peter 2:9).

Why do we worry so much about being seen by men? Why do we worry about what other men may think? We need to make sure that we are doing what is right and forget about what others want us to do. Following the masses is not always a good idea. Matthew 7:13-14 says, "Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it." One should not worry so much about men; one should be more concerned about what God wants. Hebrews 10:31 says, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

When we can have the unity for which Jesus prayed for, and the unity for which Paul planned, we will have a great blessing from God. Many of us may not experience this unity unless we seek it and lead others to it. Even though we are in the one true church, we can still suffer from division. Psalms 33:1 says, "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!" Unity among brethren is something that is easily taught, but not easily put into practice.

Jesus Himself was the perfect example of submitting to the will of the Heavenly Father: "Though He was a Son, yet He learned obedience by the things which He suffered. And having been perfected, He became the author of eternal salvation to all who obey Him" (Hebrews 5:8-9). He suffered for you because He loves you. Will you follow Him and promote non-denominational Christianity? You can be just a Christian and teach others.

Throughout the past two months we have dedicated this space to pursue a pattern of non-denominational Christianity. This article concludes that series of articles but it does not diminish our passion for pursuing it at all costs. We need to pursue it with all our heart, soul, mind and strength because it is the evidence of one who loves God. Have a great week!

You are loved!
