HAPPY GRANDPARENTS DAY

The following are responses from a survey of children who were asked these questions: "How are grandmothers different from mothers?" and, "How are grandfathers different from fathers?" Their answers tell the story.

Grandmothers.....always give you things.
 hug too much.
 like for you to eat a lot.
 accept me just like I am and never ask, "Why in the world did you do that?"
 are harder to explain things to.
 say things like, "A few cookies before dinner won't hurt anyone."
 believe that I can grow up to be anything I want to be.

Grandfathers.....have better stories than dads.
 laugh more.
 get sicker than fathers.
 don't get so embarrassed when you do something silly.
 need more naps.
 let you do things fathers say you aren't old enough to do.
 can tell you what you ought to do without it sounding like a lecture.
 know how to say "I love you" with their eyes.
 think you are the greatest kid in the world when everybody knows that you aren't.
